

Advanced Animal Control Officer Course
Middlesex County College
Wednesdays,
April 11, 18, 25, 2018

The Advanced Animal Control Officer course is designed to enhance the knowledge and skills of Animal Control Officers and Animal Cruelty Investigators so they will be able to better fulfill their responsibilities to animals and the community.

Over the course of three (3) Wednesdays: April 11, 18, 25, 2018 from 9 am to 5 pm, students will have the opportunity to be taught by, interact with, and build relationships with some of the foremost experts in animal control training and legal issues in the state including Carol Tyler, John Saccenti and retired Deputy attorney General, William J. Zaorski.

INFORMATION COVERED

Reviewing and defining your role

- Professionalism in the field and the office

- Public perception

- Interacting with the public, handling telephone calls and other interactions

- Professional standards, dress, grooming, equipment, courtesy

- Verbal and non-verbal communications

- Educational tools for the community

- Enhanced Licensing

Understanding local and county government structure

Successfully interacting with elected officials, health officers, police, police chiefs, and administrators

Dealing with potentially dangerous dogs and dog bites

Proper handling of rabies specimens

Handling wildlife calls

- Authority and powers

- Agency policies

- Relocation

Handling calls related to agricultural animals

- Authority and powers

- Agency policies

- Scoring charts

- Department of Agriculture

Search and seizure updates including criminal and non-criminal warrants, consent and non-consent searches, wellness searches, and handling animals locked in a parked car, including new legislation related to seizure of animals.

Of Note: At the successful completion of this program students will receive a Certificate of Completion from Middlesex County College.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Certified Animal Control Officers, Certified Animal Cruelty Investigators and their respective supervisors.

TUITION

Tuition for this program is $289.00, which includes all materials. Registration will be through Middlesex County Community College at 732 906 2556.

PRE-REQUISITE

Attendees must have been certified by the NJDOH as a NJ Animal Control Officer to attend this course. Please contact Career Development Institute (CDI) with any additional course content questions that you may have.

Career Development Institute

1.800.244.6921 www.cditraining.org